Memorized

Josh Woodward

All these nights alone without your hand to hold
You still feel so close almost like a ghostAnd I see you and I miss youEvery little sigh the taste of the tears you cried
The way you held my face, your strength, your fears, your grace
The things that you believed I remember everything
Your face, your skin, your eyes I've got you memorizedI just can't forget the linger of your scent
Sweet and innocent just like a baby's breathI still feel you and I hear youEvery little sigh the taste of the tears you cried
The way you held my face, your strength, your fears, your grace
The things that you believed I remember everything
Your face, your skin, your eyes I've got you memorizedEvery little sigh the taste of the tears you cried
The way you held my face, your strength, your fears, your grace
You will always be the only one for me
I'll never let you go deep in my heart I knowYou are the only one my earth, my moon, my sun
Every little sigh the sound of your last goodbye
I got you memorized, I got you memorized, I got you memorized
