

Goodbye

Mudvayne

Pendulum stops and falls away
Life sifted through like sand
Storms of summer rain
Flooding lifelines in our hands
Our skin of blood and bone
Gently close to dust and blows
Our home of blood and bone
Falls through the ground and is
So unstoppable
These feelings of loss
So unstoppable
Egging through to the marrow of bones
Just let it go
Pain willing in your eyes
Just let me go
Dry the tears that fall
And remember
When everything is typical
I'll be the wish upon a star
I've found a place so magical
Goodbye
See you another, goodbye
I'll see you another, goodbye
I'll see you another, goodbye
See you another
Pentacles rise
Precious circle is mended
Sense vertigo in you
So I'll be your hand now
So unstoppable
My love for you
So unstoppable
Memories of you
Just remember
When everything is typical
I'll be the wish upon a star
I've found a place so magical
But still please
Someone, help me, grab me, save me now

Distrust, darkened, daylight, I've lost sight
Someone, help me, grab me, save me now
Distrust, darkened, daylight, I've lost sight
Remember that nothing here is typical
I'll be the wish upon a star
I've lost something so magical
And gone so far
When everything seems difficult
I'll be shining from a far
When it feels like things have gone away
I'll see you again
I'll see you again, goodbye
