

Snapshot

ì—•î”,,ì—‘îŠα(f(x))

Ladies and gentlemen, Mesdames et messieurs
A big round of applause for the lovely f(x) ladies
What to do, I guess you let your guard down
Your eyes always pretend to be indifferent but I know you're looking at me
Born to be a model, a natural subject for photos
My silhouette is elegant like Marilyn Monroe
Click, snapshot, I stop like ice, just like this
Click, snapshot, yeah the flash goes off in my eyes
Click, snapshot, into your eyes
Click, snapshot, fill me in
What to do, I guess I forgot
When I'm walking on the street, I need to make my hair softly fly behind me
The angle of which I hold my coffee should be 45.8
You are my camera, oh I only look at you
Click, snapshot, I stop like ice, just like this
Click, snapshot, yeah the flash goes off in my eyes
Click, snapshot, into your eyes
Click, snapshot, fill me in
Oh gosh, what to do? I think my heart has been caught
Oh, I was too obviously pretending
That's not what I wanted, I wanted to seem perfect
Will you view my real image prettily?
Click, snapshot, now I'll be myself, just as I am
Click, snapshot, yeah even my eyes that can't be hidden
Click, snapshot, when you wanna know my heart
Click, snapshot, just take it out and see
Click, snapshot, I stop like ice, just like this
Click, snapshot, yeah the flash goes off in my eyes
Click, snapshot, into your eyes
Click, snapshot, fill me in
