Self Entitled Man

Davy Knowles

Self-Entitled Man
Davey Knowles

You can see in his face, a broken thin disguise
A self-entitled man
He can hide behind his suit, he can hide behind his lies
A self-entitled man
Take you on a road to ruin, leave you out in the rain
A self-entitled man
Donâ€™t know what heâ€™s doingâ€™, but heâ€™d do it all the same
Self-entitled man

You wash away your footsteps like waves on the sand
Make sure you were never there
Spend your money for you, or just keep it all himself
A self-entitled man

Sabotage and treason, put the blame on you
For youâ€™re on your own
Give him any reason, to do what he wants to
Self-entitled man

You wash away your footsteps like waves on the sand
Make sure you were never there
Spend your money for you, or just keep it all himself
A self-entitled man

Heâ€™ll lie in wait, â€˜til opportunity knocks
And donâ€™t say I didnâ€™t warn you
Cause heâ€™ll build up all your hopes, send them crashing down
A self-entitled man
A self-entitled man
A self-entitled man
A self-entitled man
Leave you out in the rain
A self-entitled man
Give him any reason
A self-entitled man
Do it all over again

A self-entitled man
