You are holy, holy, holy, holy Lord
D#m C# B G# B C#
You are holy, holy, the whole earth is full of Your glory

I see You high and lifted up beyond the skies
I see Your throne as the train of your robe fills the temple
Your train so majestic for it shows every victory You've won for me
You're my conquering King, the One who fights for me,
Even death is swallowed up in victory because

You are holy, holy, holy, holy Lord
You are holy, holy, the whole earth is full of Your glory

D#m C# B Bb
Faithful and true, in righteousness You judge and make war

Your eyes a flaming fire, from Your mouth comes a sharp two-edged sword
D#m C# B Bb
On Your vesture dipped in blood is written King of Kings and Lord of Lords
D#m C# B B/G# C#
To You be all the blessing, dominion, and power now and forever amen
