

Jackie Got Married

Wild Strawberries

Jackie got married on Valentine's Day
It was a lovely wedding
He met his bride on the interstate
Seventeen miles from ConnecticutAt least that's what Jackie said
Ruby told me she wished she were dead
And I hold all these things in my heartBobby got shot on Independence Day
He was a fine young preacher
Till they carved his heart awayRuby said he would want it that way
I don't really know what to say
And I hold all these things in my heartI've got no infant Messiah
I've got no gabardine prose
I've just got five hundred dollars
That nobody knows aboutI'll give you my money
I will sell you my soul
If you would just hold these things
If you would just hold these things in your heart
