

Fruitcake

moosebutter

There's a fruitcake for everybody
There's a fruitcake for everyone
There are b-sides to every story
If you decide to have some fun
 Take a bite
 It's alright
There's some brandy and star margarine to make it bright
 Take a bite
 It's alright
A little lovin' and some fruit to bake
 Life is a piece of cake
 It's the season for being happy
 But the reason is dead and gone
 If the reason for being happy
Takes a backseat when the season's done
 Just take a bite
 It's alright
Taste the taste that sent all mothers giggling in sheer delight
 Take a bite
 It's alright
A little lovin and some fruit to bake
 Life is a piece of cake

Everybody, everywhere people do you really care
 Christmas time has once again arrived
Everybody, everywhere people do you really care
 Christmas time has once again arrived
 Mistletoe and a little snow
But we don't get it there at fruitcake heights
 Mistletoe and a little snow
But we don't get it there at fruitcake heights
 Stars are falling down from heaven
 But it's nowhere near our town
Miracles are falling down from heaven
 But it's nowhere near our town
There's a fruitcake in everybody
There's a fruitcake in everyone
There are b-sides to every story
If you decide to have some fun

Just take a bite
It's alright
Taste the taste that sent all mothers giggling in sheer delight
Take a bite
It's alright
A little lovin and some fruit to bake
Life is a piece of cake
