

Kings & Queens Of The Underground

Billy Idol

Born in a time
That wasn't made to last
In 1977 - it went fast Johnny told us to rise
Not to give a shit
And then "Kiss Me Deadly"
And we had a hit Last night in the Roxy
We made love on the floor
We shot up in the bathroom
And said we were bored If you are here tonight
And you hear these sounds
We are still kings & queens of the underground I don't mean to be profound
But if I'm still around
We are still kings & queens
Of the underground 1984 and "Rebel Yell" had the floor
All they said, was "more more more"
Well I touched you with
My "Eyes Without A Face"
I was "Hot In The City"
Yes, I thought I was ace I didn't know then
When I was in your front room
On MTV, baby
I was high as the moon If you are here tonight
And you hear these sounds
We are still kings & queens
Of the underground I don't mean to be profound
But if I'm still around
We are still kings & queens of the underground Ooh, ooh, golden years Sold all my vinyl
It went up my arm
And I thought rock and roll
Couldn't do me no harm Now I'm rolling a joint
And I'm dressed in black
If we lose the music baby
We can never go back And if you're here tonight
And you hear these sounds
We are still kings & queens of the underground
I don't mean to be profound
But if I'm still around
We are still kings & queens
Of the underground Jonesy said, "Bill, don't be profound,

If you are still a king of the underground"
If you hear my voice
And you dig these rebel sounds
Still kings & queens of the undergroundHere tonight
I wanna dig these sounds
I'm still a king of the underground
If you hear my voice
Dig these rebel sounds
We're still kings & queens of the undergroundOoh, ooh, golden years
