Ain't No Thing

Bucky Covington

I can get feeling down
I can cruise downtown
And find a good place to cry
And drink a bottle dryI could see closin' time
I could ease my mind
In all them little honky tonk joints
But baby, what's the point?Ain't no thing, ain't no thing
So I'm standin' in the pourin' rain
Ain't like I never been here before
I'm just here againAin't no thing, ain't no thing
So you're leavin' like a long freight train
And if I even cry at all that will be a cryin' shame
'Cause the sky ain't gonna fall, girl, you know it ain't no thingDon't feel sorry, don't feel sad
Don't feel bad about the way
You had to break my heart in two
I got news for youIt's okay, it's alright
In fact there's nothing
That's quite like bein' set free
There's other fishes in the seaAin't no thing, ain't no thing
So I'm standin' in the pourin' rain
Ain't like I never been here before
I'm just here againAin't no thing, ain't no thing
So you're leavin' like a long freight train
If I even cry at all that'll be a cryin' shame
'Cause the sky ain't gonna fall, and girl, you know it ain't no thingAin't no thing, ain't no thing
So I'm standin' in the pourin' rain
Ain't like I never been here before
I'm just here againAin't no thing, ain't no thing
So you're leavin' like a long freight train
If I even cry at all that'll be a cryin' shame
'Cause the sky ain't gonna fall, girl, you know it ain't no thing
You know it ain't nowAin't no thing
Ain't no thing
