

Surrender the Night

My Chemical Romance

Everyone's a passenger tonight
Just another accident to long a freeway of this life.
We'll drive on, and on, and on, and on.
We'll drive on, and on, and
I'll remember this night when you're gone You surrender your heart,
I surrender every dream,
Every weapon you've got,
Every secret that I keep,
You can fight this all you want,
But tonight belongs to...Just another surgery tonight,
Well if you amputate the loneliness,
The anesthesia dims the lights
So dream on, and on, and on, and on.
So dream on, and on, and
I'll remember your eyes when you're gone You surrender your heart,
I surrender every dream,
Every weapon you've got,
Every secret that I keep,
You can fight this all you want,
But tonight belongs to me While I watch you in your sleep
'Cause tonight belongs to me
You can fight this all you want
But tonight belongs to...Sparks against the railing
Distant phantoms swelling
Through the windshield sailing
With these airbags failing now You surrender your heart,
I surrender every dream,
Every weapon you've got,
Every secret that I keep,
You can fight this all you want,
But tonight belongs to me While I watch you in your sleep
You can fight this all you want
But tonight belongs to me
But tonight belongs to me
But tonight belongs to me
