

Soul Society

Norman Andretti aka Quarill

If my soul could revive from my carnal remains
What does it matter to me
If it all fades to black
If I'm born once again
Then no one really is free
How could I be condemned for the things that I've done
If my intentions were good
I guess I'll never know
Some things under the sun can never be understood
How can we believe in heaven
Human reason counters all
Ideas of a soul society

My life is just a fragment of the universe and all
There must be more that I can see
In the dark we're the same
In the concept of time
We're like a grain in the sand
And we strive for the flame
As if death was our aim
Cause we cannot understand
How I wish there was a heaven
All for one and one for all
A flawless soul society
Our lives are just a fragment of the universe and all
There may be more then we can see
