

Needed

Robbie Fulks

In Daddy's car, stoned with a fake ID, fresh out of school, not a care in the world at all, in my eighteens,
summer life was never so free, it was then that the change began to fall, she was dark haired, she was wild eyed, I was helpless and spellbound, what she made me feel was strange back then but I know what it was now,(chorus)
Needed,
something about needed
leaves every other word, weak and small,
Needed,
when you're really needed,
you can rise to meet it, or you can fall
For what happened next I offer no excuse, maybe we were drawn to what our parents said was sin, but in our passion we saw just one thing to do, throw ourselves at each other and caution to the wind, she longed to keep it,
I said no,
I had my future to think of,
in her darkest hour she learned what young men won't do for love,(chorus)
Needed,
pointed straight at my freedom, like a loaded gun,
Needed,
when you're really needed,
some rise to meet it, and some of us run, Can you imagine all those years ago?
That I thought I'd reached the end?
But passion cools, life goes on,
old wounds mostly mend, but your mom and I were married, such better days began, when you were, was when I became a man, Where you're headed now is not really mine to say, you've been more than patient but hear my story through, and now you are a teen and on your way, there are some few simple things I wish for you, you will steer past shallow freedoms as you follow your own star, when your life is at it's darkest please remember that you are,(chorus)

Needed,
weak and small,
Needed,
I hope you know that you're needed, that you'll rise to meet it, and never shall fall.
