

A Sight To Behold

Eisley

Could I be possibly insane
To think you and I have life figured out
And how does one approach this
When all our past loves have let us downOohLet's break the walls down
And find how to live
'Cause you and I have
So much to giveOohI know that I have taken things
I've taken things I had for granted
I know this one thing's for sure
I won't let you ever walk out my doorOohLet's break the walls down
And find how to live
'Cause you and I have
So much to giveOohWe are forming a sight to behold
We hold forever and everLet's break the walls down
And find how to live
'Cause you and I have
So much to giveLet's break the walls down
And find how to live
'Cause you and I have
So much to giveOoh
