Pulp Song

Stellastarr*

And we walked a thousand days
There was nothing more to find
Million peoples in our way
Million ways to loose our minds
Met a girl the other day
Didnt know what i should say
Saw myself inside her eyes
There was nothing more to find
We're lying
We've lied to you
We've lied to make our point of view
Hello captain I have faith
More than those who follow me
If we strike them though their hearts
Then their minds will set them free
Met a girl the other year
Didnt know who I should be
Yeah
Yeah
We're lying
We've lied to you
We've lied to make our point of view
We're lying
We've lied to say
We plan to lie our lives away
Wonder what makes you change your mind
Wonder what makes you keep on spinnin'

Wonder what makes you wanna cry
Wonder what makes your life worth livin'
Wonder what goes on in your brain
Wonder what goes on in your kitchen
Wonder what makes you...
Yeah
Yeah
We're lying
We've lied to you
We've lied to make our point of view
We're lying

We've lied to say
Yeah
1,2,3,4...
Yeah
Yeah
We're lying
We've lied to you
We've lied to make our point of view
We're lying
We've lied to say
We plan to lie our lives away
We're lying
We've lied to you
We've lied to make our point of view
We're lying
We've lied to say
We plan to lie our lives away
