Over (Extended)

GOLDHOUSE

[Verse]
You say you love me,
but you're having some doubts.
You met another guy,
want to work it out.
Don't apologise,
because you're not sorry, babe.Everybody knows
I wear my heart on my sleeve.
You left me so f*cked up.
So eager to bleed.
Stick and stones? No,
it's your words that hurt me, baby.[Chorus]
I want to press rewind,
go back in time.
I want to break your heart,
so you can't break mine.
I want to be the one
to say it's over, baby.I want to make it hurt,
every single word.
I want to strike that match,
just to watch it burn.
I want to see your face
when I say it's over, baby.
when I say it's o-o-o-over, o-o-over.[Verse]
Everybody says,
"You're moving on",
"You got your right-hand man", and
"You're going strong".
Me, myself, and I,
we're doing fine, baby.Force a smile along,
just to get through my day.
And when your friends go around,
I swear to God,
I'm OK.
They don't need to know
just how it hurts, baby.
(Yeah)[Chorus]
I want to press rewind,
go back in time.

I want to break your heart,
so you can't break mine.
I want to be the one
to say it's over, baby.I want to make it hurt,
every single word.
I want to strike that match,
just to watch it burn.
I want to see your face
when I say it's over, baby.When I say it's over...
Yeah, it's over!
Baby, it's over...
Yeahy-yeahy-yeah![Chorus]
I want to press rewind,
go back in time.
I want to break your heart,
so you can't break mine.
I want to be the one
to say it's over, baby.I want to make it hurt,
every single word.
I want to strike that match,
just to watch it burn.
I want to see your face
when I say it's over, baby.when I say it's o-o-over...
