

Eating for None

Future of the Left

I spy
with my little eye ball
something beginning with 'brian stole the dvd player, tie him to the aston martin then send him
to the beach
somewhere symbolic that will speak to him of drowning, but actually just be quite wet'cos we are eating for nonei am
most of the time perfectly happy but occasionally am struck by a melancholy the details of which are often extremely dull to write songs
near and round yourself why not commission a picture of your own tits and put it on display in your mother's care home?cos we are
eating for none
