Whispers

Fairground Attraction

The way she whispers
The stories I have heard
In captivation my eyes are wide with her words
So much respect in here
My heart is blowin' up to burstWith one step forward
She leads me by the hand
I think I'll make it
Through stars up in the sky
They show we're all the same
And some day soon they say, "We all must die"Tell them all
Wrap them up in fire
With your love
Here I am
I, I amSomebody told me
The answer's in the fight
Grab all you can
Take everything in sight
Don't care if I sit here forever
Holding nothing but my heartShe whispered to me
"It makes no difference
You get what you give
And only then just enough
To make you happy no more, no less
Too much is too absurd"Tell them all
Wrap them up in fire
With your love
Here I am, I
I, I amShe speaks in silence
Her work is never done
But still goes on 'til
The battle she has won
But for a moment I thought I saw her
Dancing in the starsI
I
Ooo hmm
Hmm hmm hmm
