Here We Go Again

Sweet Talker

When the lights go down in the city
There's whiskey in my aching bones, heaven only knows I can't keep up at all
Sleeping next to the phone, it's never pretty
Looks like you got the best of me, maybe the fool in me but I'm waking upAll the time that you wasted
I was saving it all
Running down a lonely road
Here we go, here we go again
Was it love we were making
Or have you traded it all?
Running in at out the door
Here we go, here we go againEvery stone that you throw was never worth it
I'm not the man I used to be, no I could never be, look how far I've come
From those rocky roads to rainy cities
Back into the desert then, into the ancients den, every place I call homeAll the time that you wasted
I was saving it all
Running down a lonely road
Here we go, here we go again
Was it love we were making
Or have you traded it all?
Running in at out the door
Here we go, here we goHey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, heeeey-yee
Hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, hey-ye, heeeey-yeeAll the time that you wasted
I was saving it all
Running down a lonely road
Here we go, here we go again
Was it love we were making
Or have you traded it all?
Running in at out the door
Here we go, here we go againWas it love we were making
Or have you traded it all?
Running in and out that door
Here we go, here we go again
