Drowning In Slow Motion

Trivium

Drowning in slow motion
Drowning in slow motionIt's what I need
A place to freely bleedAll behold the bloodshed
Down upon your knees
All extol the godsend
Construction or divineI feel there's no place left to hide
From myself, I am left behind
Drowning in slow motion
Is this fate imagined?
I feel there's no place left to hideTaken from me
My willingness to breatheAll behold the bloodshed
Down upon your knees
All extol the godsend
From myself, I am left behind
Drowning in slow motion
Is this fate imagined?
I feel there's no place left to hideBlackened horizon
Light has withdrawnBlackened horizon
Light has withdrawn
Blackened horizon
Light has withdrawnI feel there's no place left to hide
From myself, I am left behind
Drowning in slow motion
Is this fate imagined?I feel there's no place left to hide
From myself, I am left behind
Drowning in slow motion
Is this fate imagined?
I feel there's no place left to hide
From myself, I am left behind
