

Silence

Gigi d'Agostino

Nows the time... Run to my heart...
Lead your life into the destiny of love...
Walking hand in hand and then...
Hold me tight when i look into your eyes...ive been waiting for your love...
Hold your life just for the destiny of love...
I adore to see your smile...
This time
hold me tight when i look into your eyes...stay with me for ever sharing love together keep my dream alive
touch with me the skysgot to be the reason share with you my freedom steal a ray of sun While im here with you
you must come along everywhere i go
i just want to love you so
To fall in love with you
i never ever played
i just want to say hello
it takes so long
to draw
from every where i go
i never ever played
to draw
Never ever played
just want to say hello
to fall in love with you
i never ever played
to draw

i just want to love you so...
