

And I Didn't Want You

Mistress Mary

Never wanted your love never wanted your kisses never wanted your sympathy never wanted your glances never wanted to romance with you until half past three

and i didnt want you
and i didnt need you well call me a liar
it was you that set the fire so you jump from the frying pan back into my fire again well call me what you want to i tried not to deceive you no never wanted your touch never wanted your tears didnt wanna share

all of your fears

never wanted to give never wanted to take baby make no mistake about that

and now that i need you i cant ever have you well call me anything just so my phone will ring

you dont want me your heart was burned and scarred now im the fool whose love is forever barred

but now i need you
baby darling i want you

i want you now
