

If There Is Room To Move, Things Move

Every Time I Die

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

We opened the box and looked inside
Two animals, one is dead, one's alive
All we think we know is always wrong
The heavens fell in a thick awful shroud that covered the earth, but there wasn't a sound
 Nobody saw it so nobody heard it
 All these equations won't solve the uncertain
 Everything's dead until it's alive
 Man will exist and then he will die
 Just take the ride (x2)
 See it now (x2)
 Shift the absurd and the reasoned around
 Make it so (x2)
 Build holy places with towering stones
 Open your eyes, its all there inside
 Everything gone and forgotten survives
 Everything we know we think is wrong
 All the lead becomes gold
 All the squares get circled
 All the graves, emptied and covered up
 We toil and we rot and terrible things happened just like I thought
 And the cycle carried on until I thought nothing more and heartache was gone
 Love it as it is
 Whatever the fuck this is
 Or destroy it and start again
 What we are is in your head
 Hell broke loose, the stars unaligned
 I looked for a kingdom that I'll never find
 All I thought I knew was always wrong
 I threw out the map and let go of the reigns
 Led by a stranger into the strange
 The answer is that there's no answer at all (x2)
 Everything's dead until it's alive

Man will exist and then he will die
Just take the ride
