Somewhere, Someday

'n Sync

Clouds above you
Start to pour
All of your doubts
Rage like a storm
And you don't know
Who you are anymore
Let me help you find
What you've been searching forChorus:
(somewhere)
Somewhere there's a field and a river
(somewhere)
You can let your soul run free
(someday)
Someday let me be the giver
Let me bring you peace
(somewhere)
Somewhere there's a break in the weather
(somewhere)
Where your heart and spirit go free
(someday)
Someday it'll be for the better
Let this bring you peaceGirl I know you
Think no one sees
The weight on your shoulders
But you can't fool me
And aren't you tired
Of standing so tall
Let me be the one
To catch you when you fallChorusLet me bring you joy (bring you joy)
Let me bring you peace (bring you peace)
Take these tears that you've cried
And trust them to me
Let me give you heart
Let me give you hope
Be the one constant love
That you've never knownChorusSomewhere, someday
Let me be the one
To catch you when you fall
Somewhere

Somewhere
Let me bring you peace
Somewhere
