So High

Ruben Paz

I get so high
when I'm feeling low
When I'm feeling low

Let these feelings go
I don't need â€˜em no more
Pick my heart from the floor
Ask the city, they know, they know

I'm out of my mind
This shit don't change
This shit don't change for me, no
Don't play no games, â€˜Cuz it's all the same
Feels like nothing's gonna change for me

I'm feeling low, got no place to go
Too much in my mind
I'm lost in the smoke
Don't leave me alone, i need you now
More than ever before
More than ever before

Where did you go
I've been searching for you
Like the internet, all over the world
Don't play no games, cuz it's all the same
Feels like nothing's gonna change for me, no
I'm losing control
Everything moving slow
My head bout to blow
I can't think anymore
I've been here before
Already know how
All this shit's gonna go
Ain't nobody gonna win
Have some money to spend
So, imma get bent
Don't got money to blow, but imma spend every cent
Don't hit up my phone
I've been on my own

Ask the city they know
Ask the city they know

I get so high
When i'm feeling low
When i'm feeling low
Let these feelings go
I don't need them no more
Pick my heart from the floor
Ask the city they know, they know
I'm out of my mind
Feels like nothing's gon change for me
Bro-bro-bro-bro broken hearts in this broken city
Need a fix? Come and match it with me
You've been looking for lust,
I've been looking for trust
And all this shit don't add up
But i still won't change
I've been doing everything
To better myself
I've been running the city to better my health
This ain't no gimmick, I don't got shit on the shelves

I never ask for help
Don't plan on it either
Yeah I came from nothing
Now I'm everything to
Told â€˜em I'd make it
I'm never gon fake it
If I want it i'll get it If it's yours i'll take it
Got no head in my heart, so don't tear it apart
Got some drink in my cup, and I still want love
I don't play no games I ain't with that shit
Yeah, I'm looking for change
But all these hoes are the same So I
When I'm feeling low
When I'm feeling low
Pick my heart from the floor

Ask the city they know, they know

I'm out of my mind
This shit don't change
Shit don't change for me, no
