The Coming Curse

Iced Earth

I walk the Earth just as they planned Baptized in fire for my ancient land

The coming curse, your anti-Christ, I am the Watcher's eye

I vindicate and cleanse the Earth of all mankindFor many years, I've walked among you

Through the folds of time and space

Kingdoms fall, leaders die, as I see fit

I devour souls of those that pose a threatI walk the Earth another day

The wicked one that comes this way

Savior to my own, devil to some

Mankind falls, something wicked comes bide my time planning your fate

With bated breath, The Elder wait

The coming curse, your anti-Christ, I am the Watcher's eye

For your crimes on our kind you all will dieI walk the Earth another day

The wicked one that comes this way

Savior to my own, devil to some

Mankind falls, something wicked comesForged in the sacred flames

On the sixth day

Of the sixth month

In the sixth hourI am your anti-Christ, I will destroy mankind

Born of the beast and flames

I will devour, I will divideHellfire rages in my eyes

Blood will fall like rain this night

The coming curse, the anti-Christ, I am the Watcher's eye

I vindicate and cleanse the Earth of all mankindI walk the Earth another day

The wicked one that comes this way

Savior to my own, devil to some

Mankind falls, Something Wicked Comes
