1994

The Stereo

i'll wear my army coat cause that's all that i own i won't forget about the time spent so alone you wear your navy shirt and plaid skirt, no cell phone those were our better days i'd die to be there today in 1994 it seems so far away from 1998 we use to say that we would never let go we use to say things were OK but now i don't know i'm afraid to wake up so i won't if you know any other way, i don't where were you before 1994? why did you walk away in 1998?
i can't take anymore cause 1994 it seems so far away from 1998 the songs we use to sing the walks that we would talk forget about those days a childish, nostalgic walk
