

409 In Your Coffeemaker

Green Day

I sit in the state of a daydream
With all of your words flying over my head
Even more time gets wasted in a dazeIt should seem obvious to you
Your screams and cries are never going to work
And all of your time gets wasted in my dazeAnd I'm looking back now at where I have gone wrong
And why I could not seem to get along
My interests are longing to break through these chains
These chains that control my future's aims, oh noI sit in the state of a daydream
With all of your words flying over my head
Even more time gets wasted in a dazeMaybe I'm just too damn lazy
Or maybe I was just brainwashed to think that way
And all of your time gets wasted in my dazeAnd I'm looking back now at where I have gone wrong
And why I could not seem to get along
My interests are longing to break through these chains
These chains that control my future's aims, oh noI'm looking back now at
Where I have, have gone wrong
And why I could not seem
Could not seem to get alongAnd I'm looking back now at where I have gone wrong
And why I could not seem to get along
My interests are longing to break through these chains
These chains that control my future's aims, oh no
