

Torn

Disturbed

I'm without fault today, didn't think it would kill you
To settle the debt I thought never would be paid
Found out I was wrong today, too weak to continue
One final defense to fall, still I'm broken Now I am torn, thought it was over this time
And we know there's still a fire inside
And we know and we know
We're gonna let it burn, let it burn
Till the image fades away Knew there was a price to pay, didn't think it would thrill you
To witness the fallen ones shattered and ashamed
No, I'm not the only one with a need to fulfill you
One willing to risk it all, still uncertain Now I am torn, thought it was over this time
And we know there's still a fire inside
And we know and we know
We're gonna let it burn, let it burn
Till the image fades away, yeah Now I am torn, thought it was over this time
And we know there's still a fire inside
And we know and we know That I am torn, thought it was over this time
And we know there's still a fire inside
And we know and we know
We're gonna let it burn, let it burn
Till the image fades away

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>