Until We Never Meet Again

Kimberly Dunn

Stack of bills piled on the counter
Car payment three months over due
I wish the bank would hurry up and take it
And while they're at it, they can take you too

Leave me alone
Baby let me go
Gotta give you up
And give what I owe

If I could add up all them sorrys
Keep them in a jar
I'd have a mansion and not this apartment
To hide this broken heart

So run back to your Mommas basement
Right where you belong
You can pay me back, by never coming back
Until we never meet again, so long

Bet ya never saw this one comin
First blow can be pretty hard
I took the liberty and packed your things up, so good luck
You can find em, burnin in the yard

Leave me alone
Baby let me go
Gotta give you up
And give what I owe

If I could add up all them sorrys
Keep them in a jar
I'd have a mansion and not this apartment
To hide this broken heart

So run back to your Mommas basement
Right where you belong
You can pay me back, by never coming back
Until we never meet again, so long

Fair well, good bye

If I could add up all them sorrys
Keep them in a jar
I'd have a mansion and not this apartment
To hide this broken heart

So run back to your Mommas basement
Right where you belong
You can pay me back, by never coming back
You can pay me back, by never coming back
Until we never meet again, so long
