A Cinderella Story

Redefined

Hold me back and hold me down
Hold me close then push me around
Beat me up, beat me down to the ground
I'm sure I deserved it
Left my world, left me alone
Locked inside, head becomes my home
Inside a hole, buried like a bone
I'm sure you had your reasons
Out of your sight, are you out of your mind?
In my absence, your heart never grew fonder
You just leave me alone
Tell me, please tell me it ain't so
I can't believe it so I walk the road
You just left me alone
Tell me, please tell me it ain't so
Had to believe it so I walk alone
So I walk alone by myself
Had my back then you turned around
Loved by default but were never proud
Run away but I'm not allowed
So I suffer through it
Out of your sight, are you out of your mind?
In my absence your heart never grew fonder
You just leave me alone
Tell me, please tell me it ain't so
I can't believe it so I walk the road
You just left me alone
Tell me, please tell me it ain't so
Had to believe it so I walk alone
So I walk alone
Enough love for the family
Just nothing left for me, you see?
It's just like Cinderella
Locked up and hid away
You've no idea what you've created
Wanted to take a look
And see through a hole without a key
See what I've been missing
Goddamn you for what I am

Enough love of the family
It's just like Cinderella
Locked up and hid away
You've no idea what you've created
Wanted to take a look
Goddamn you for what I'm missing
You just leave me alone
I can't believe it so I walk the road
Tell me, please tell me it ain't so
Had to believe it so I walk alone
So I walk alone
It's just like Cinderella
You have no idea
It's just like Cinderella
It's just like Cinderella
You have no idea
It's just like Cinderella
