Shake Me Up

Giant

Midnight, my doorbell rings
You're standing in the cold with a few of your things
And you're crying, yeahI know words for walking slow
You don't have to tell me
I don't wanna knowWhen times get tough
You always run right back to me
But I don't care, if it makes you feel better'Cos you shake me up, break me up
When you're around, I can't get enough
Oh you shake me up, break me up
Girl, you tear me apart
Yeah yeah yeah, ya shake me upThe next day, the frontdoor slams
You're standing in the street with another man
And you're laughing, yeahYou move close
You shake his hand
You smile at me like I understand, ohIn your eyes
There is a promise you'll be back
And that's all I need to make me feel better'Cos you shake me up, break me up
When you're around, I can't get enough
Oh you shake me up, break me up
Girl, you tear me apartShake me up, break me up
When you're around, I can't get enough
Oh you shake me up, break me up
Girl, you tear me apart
Yeah yeah yeah, ya shake me upWhy don't you make up your mind?
You better stop wastin' my timeAt night, my doorbell rings
You're standing in the cold with all of your things
An you're smiling, yeahYou walk in and say hello
You don't have to tell me
'Cos I already knowNo more tears, you won't be standing in the cold
You'll be back with me
And it'll be better, oh better'Cos you shake me up, break me up
When you're around, I can't get enough
C'mon shake me up, break me upShake me up, break me up
When you're around, I can't get enough
Oh you shake me up, break me up
Girl, you tear me apartShake me up, break me up
Shake me up, break me up
Shake me up, break me up
Shake me up, break me up
