

Things Get Better

Monster Truck

The rich get richer,
while the poor men pass on.
The way that we struggle makes it hard to carry on
And make way for a future looking dark. Tell me it's alright, tell me we have not been wrong.
The powers that be make it tough to sing a song.
Throwing everything that's been given us away. I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better. And I want hope.
I want hope.
Yeah I want hope.
Cities are dying, people have no faith.
Snuffing out the flames
that will never be replaced.
And I could use a little light right now.
Now you can't tell me to be cool,
you can't tell me not to say, that we're gonna be the ones to dig our own graves. I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better. And I want hope.
Yeah.
I want hope.
Yeah I want hope.
Oh I want hope.
Yeah I want hope.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better. And I want hope.
Yeah.
Oh I want hope.
Yeah.
Oh give me hope.
Yeah I want hope.
Oh give me hope.
Yeah I want hope.
Yeah. I got a feeling things will get worse before they get better.
