

Only Midnight

The Shires

I didn't wanna say goodbye
Yeah it was a real good night
Funny how the hours feel like seconds when you're around
You said you'll call when you get home
Now here I am staring at the phone
Tryin' to figure out the miles or where you are right now
When you laugh I get weak, and I die everytime that you speak
At the fact that I act like I'm sixteen again
'Cause I wanna feel my heartbeat skip everytime you touch me
I want the butterflies, the sleepless nights
I want all of your time
Heaven probably can wait, and I know it's kinda late
But I wanna call you up and hear you say,
Baby it's alright, it's only midnight
I know that I should play it cool
I know you shouldn't give too much too soon
But waiting here is killing me
Tonight I'm not that strong
When you laughed I got weak, and I died every time you were speaking
Got me feeling like I'm sixteen again
'Cause I wanna feel my heartbeat skip everytime you touch me
I want the butterflies, the sleepless nights
I want all of your time
Heaven probably can wait, and I know it's kinda late
But I wanna call you up and hear you say,
Baby it's alright, it's only midnight
I wanna know that, can you feel it like I feel it
I don't wanna slow down, take it easy
'Cause I wanna feel my heartbeat skip every time you touch me
I want the butterflies, the sleepless nights
I want all of your time
Heaven probably can wait, and I know it's kinda late
But I wanna call you up and hear you say,
Baby it's alright, it's only midnight
Yeah yeah
It's only midnight (it's only midnight)
Baby it's alright, it's only midnight
