

My Darkest Dreams

Reactive Black

Once...

You set my soul on fire
Like no one did before
So deeper I was falling
Losing my self-control

I feel my life is fading
Like clouds are passing by
The cold wind is taking
Taking away my dreams

So many ways to go
So many ways to come
So many ways to fail
So many ways to die

I feel my life is fading
The clouds are passing by
The cold wind is taking
Taking away my dreams

But see I'm slowly dying
Please, somebody catch my fall
Back in this demon's arms
I'm feeling well once more

So many ways to go
So many ways to come
So many ways to fail
And so many ways to die
