Problems Problems (BLU J Remix)

Frankie

I don't (know know)
I don't (know know)I
I'm going numb to be put on the side
You used to sit me so high up on your shoulders
Those days are over
Why
you you are a force of nature? Just like the moon!
You got a hold on me, it's pulling me tighter Bringing me closer to you.I just wanna know what it's like
Looking at the world through your bright eyes
Tell me how it is from inside,
Like your mind is my mind!
Baby baby
you've been so silent to me lately, lately
It's like you disappeared, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train home
Problems, problems,
I know that everybody's got them, got them
But let's not do this here, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train homeHere
I feel the snowflakes falling down on my ears
But we're just standing still, so deep in the silence
No piece in the quiet here,
Time's moving so slow.I just wanna know what it's like
Looking at the world through your bright eyes
Tell me how it is from inside,
Like your mind is my mind!
Baby baby, you've been so silent to me lately, lately
It's like you disappeared, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train home
Problems, problems,
I know that everybody's got them, got them
But let's not do this here, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train homeYou don't even notice any picture perfect moment when you're lost up in your nothing
Just gone for days,
So here's a turn to hoping
Pray for you to notice,

Can you meet me half-way?Baby
you've been so silent to me lately, lately
It's like you disappeared, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train home
No nooo
Baby baby
you've been so silent to me lately, lately
It's like you disappeared, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train home
No oh
Problems, problems,
I know that everybody's got them, got them
But let's not do this here, the night's so cold
Can't miss the last train home
The night's so cold
Can't miss the last train home
