

Baby, You're a Star

Deitrick Haddon

Somebody's out there, listening right now
So please turn up your radio, yeah
She planned to finish school and get a degree
Start a business and make her own money
But somehow her dreams didn't work out that way, yeah
She fell in love at the age of 16
Had two babies and she couldn't believe
That the boy she loved is now gone away
But because you've had some setbacks in your life
It doesn't mean that you should just let your dreams die
Baby you're a star, don't you know who you are
Don't you let nobody tell you nothing different
Than what you know that's in your heart
Coz baby, you're a star, don't you know who you are
If you could only see what I see but first you must believe
Oh, you're a star
He graduated at the top of the class
Had everything he needed and more
And like an eagle, he was made to soar
But at the wrong place, at the wrong time
Introduced to a drug and messed up his mind
Lost so many years, now he's making up for lost time
And you may have fallen on your journey, my friend
But let me encourage you to get back up and try again
Baby, you're a star, don't you know who you are
Don't let nobody tell you nothing different
Than what you know that's in your heart
Baby, you're a star, that's who you are
If you could only see what I see, you first must believe
Baby, you're a star
Oh, you are only human
You're gonna make mistakes along the way, yeah
And God has blessed you with something that is so pure
You just need some motivation and need a little push
To get up off the floor and walk through the door
Baby, you're a star, ooh
Don't let 'em tell you nothing different
Than what you know that's in your heart
Baby, baby, baby, baby, you're a star
You still can reach your goal, you gotta take control
Baby, you're a star, woo
Hey, hey, I know, I know
Baby, you're a star, that's who you are
Just make up in your mind
'Cause you were made to shine
Baby, you're a star
That's who you are, yeah

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnyrics.com/>