

Nothing Is What It Seems (Without You)

Saosin

You look like you're letting go
I know that you won't call on me
You look like you're letting go
I know what my instincts are telling me And you're fading out
It's so hard without you
This wasn't my fault Tell me how am I supposed to live without you?
This is all that I remember before you changed
You're stuck in a dream with next to nothing
I'm all alone and nothing is what it seems without you next to me Sometimes it feels like home
So safe in the shade but when the summer fades
There's always something missing
And now that I'm on my own
I know why you just, just couldn't stop And why you had to leave
It's so hard without you
This wasn't my fault Tell me how am I supposed to live without you?
This is all that I remember before you changed
You're stuck in a dream with next to nothing
I'm all alone and nothing is what it seems without you next to me I never imagined I would feel so lost
I never imagined it would be so hard
I never imagined I would feel so lost
I never imagined this would be so hard Tell me how am I supposed to live without you?
This is all that I remember before you changed
You're stuck in a dream with next to nothing
I'm all alone and nothing is what it seems without you next to me Tell me how am I supposed to live without you?
This is all that I remember before you changed
You're stuck in a dream with next to nothing
I'm all alone and nothing is what it seems without you next to me Tell me how am I supposed to live without
you?
How am I supposed to live without you?
