

The Shining (Minotaur Shock Mix)

Badly Drawn Boy

Faith pours from your walls
Drowning your calls
I've tried to hear
You're not near Remembering when
I saw your face
Shining my way
Pure timing Now I've fallen in deep
Slow silent sleep
It's killing me
I'm dying To put a little bit
Of sunshine in your life Now this slick fallen rift
Came like a gift
Your body moves
Ever nearer And you will dry this tear
Now that we're here
And grieve for me
Not history And suddenly you're
In love with everything Warm sun, warm sun
Warm sun, warm sun
Warm sun
