Demon Days (feat. London Community Gospel Choir)

Gorillaz

In demon days, it's cold inside
You don't get nobody, people sigh
It's so bad, lasting far, but love yourself
Hiding in a hole in there
All the glasses are too big
Bring it back, got to hold it back

To let you do that yet you don't want me back

Before it fall down, falling down falling down

Falling out to go far from the soulWell these demon days are so cold inside

It's so hard to live, and so to survive

You can't even trust the air you breathe

'Cause Mother Earth has a soul to leave

When lies become reality

You love yourself because it's easy

Pick yourself up it's a brand new day

So turn yourself round

Don't burn yourself, turn yourself

Turn yourself around to the soulWell these demon days are so cold inside

It's so hard to live, and so to survive

You can't even trust the air you breathe

'Cause Mother Earth has a soul to leave

When lies become reality

You love yourself because it's easy

Pick yourself up it's a brand new day

So turn yourself round

Don't burn yourself, turn yourself

Turn yourself around to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul to the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul

To the soul, to the soul
