Beautiful

Lloyd

Every day youd be beautiful...Life has its ups and downs
But all Im witnessing is struggle around
I wish I could help make a change
But its so much hurt around me
So much painSo Why
Cant we all just get along?
And try...
Try to hold on try to be strong
Now is the time
Love is the start to open our hearts
Let love in our lives
Keep your head up
Up to the sky.
Because..Every day youd be beautiful
Every cloud has its time before the sun
To know highs you must know lows.
Things dont always go the way there supposed
Thats the only thing thats fo shoLast night someones son died
So much pain in his mothers eyes
Disease and tearing at my soul train
Propaganda and lies
Got the world changedSo why
Cant we all just live as one.
And try
Try to hold on try to be strong
Now is the time
Love is the start to open our hearts
Let love in my life
Keep your head up
Up to the sky.
Because..Every day youd be beautiful
Every day
Every cloud has its time before the sun
To know highs you must know lows.
Things dont always go the way there supposed
Thats the only thing thats fo shoAll we need is love
Or is that the answer?
So much hatred and frowns
Spreadin, its like cancer

Trying to find my way out
So I reach for the clouds
Grip for a brighter day
I need you to send some love my way God
