Hell Yeah! (feat. Rick Ross)

Stacy Barthe

Don't it seem like every time you try and Progress! Something's always holding you back
Waiting on line for my piece of the pie,
But there's none left
They told us, none left, no
My people just tryna' get by
But the devil all in the way
We're just tryna' live right
But the devil all in the wayThey say we living in hell here
Hell yeah, hell yeah
They say we living in hell here
Hell yeah, hell yeahPutting away all the senseless violence and
When will it be safe for people to live again
Torch the poor almost half to death
While the rich live lavish
We're just dying to livePeople just tryna' get by
But the devil all in the way
We're just tryna' live right
But the devil all in the wayThey say we living in hell here
Hell yeah, hell yeah
They say we living in hell here
Hell yeah, hell yeahI know a place, where ain't nobody crying (I'll take you there)
Hey, I know a place, where ain't nobody dying (I'll take you there)(Maybach Music) Father which art in heaven
Hallowed thy be thy name
Fire all in her eye, coming to take the flame
Qualified as a boss, katanas when in kata
Sock over the sneakers, she with me I'm dippin' hard
Got me runnin' the streets, tell me sky is the limit
Praying I'm going to heaven or God make me a tenant
Seein' some hard times but really we all fine
Till the day that I'm gone just know that the game mine
Felon done fell in love, know the devil's a liar
Beautiful is today, can't imagine tomorrow
Beautiful is today, can't imagine tomorrowPeople just tryna' get by
But the devil all in the way
We're just tryna' live right
But the devil all in the wayThey say we living in hell here
Hell yeah, hell yeah
They say we living in hell here

Hell yeah, hell yeah
