

Dance Little Jean

Nitty Gritty Dirt Band

I played a wedding for the money
And I wished that I could've told the bride and groom
Just what I think of marriage
And what's in store after their honeymoon
And I was grumblin' to the dancers
'Bout how men and women ought to live apart
And how a promise never made can not be broken
And can never break your heart
Then suddenly from out of nowhere
A little girl came dancing 'cross the floor
And all her crinolines were billowing
Beneath the skirt of calico that she wore
And oh what a joy fell on the honored guests
As each of them was drawn inside her dream
And they laughed and stomped and clapped their hands
And hollered at her dance little Jean
And they said dance, little Jean, this day is for you
Two people you love, stood up and said I do
Dance little Jean, the prayer that you had
Was answered today your mama's marrying your dad
Well, my cynical heart just melted
'Cause I figured what this get together meant
How it ended year of tears and sad confusion
That the little girl had spent
And they told the band to pack it up
About the time the couple cut the cake
But we played as long as they stayed
For love and laughs and little Jeanie's sake
And we played dance, little Jean, this day is for you
Two people you love, stood up and said I do
Dance little Jean, the prayer that you had was answered today
Your mama's marrying your dad
It was answered today
Your mama's marrying your dad

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>