The Secretary

Sailor

Tell me why does your secretary hide up above In your upstairs apartment, ready for love When you know that you're lost in the heat of the action leave it in the hands of loveYou double your trouble when you double your home You get love in the shadow a siege on your heart and your telephone(Refrain)You're out on the catwalk you roll with the dice you get love in a suitcase and two sets of keys to energise(Refrain)(Refrain)You double your trouble, you double your home you get love in a suitcase a sacrifice for your paradise(Refrain)(Refrain)
