Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Army ants living a little white lieA slave to the wage and the nine to five
I want the monotony
I need the anonymityIt's my personal jesus
My job defines who I amIt's the evolution of man
My net worth tells me who I amTake it all and beg for more
This is something you can't understand...anymore
We're all drugged monkeysContent with our roleWe're all porn junkies
Looking for a hole
