

He's a Runner

Blood, Sweat & Tears

He's a runner and he'll run away
Soon there'll be no man
Woman ain't been born that can make him stay
Woman get away while you canHe's a runner and he'll run away
On the midnight train
Woman ain't been born that can make him stay
Come the judgment day, come the rainHe'll go running, don't ask him not to
You know he's got to go
He'll only leave you and run off with tomorrow
Leave you in chains till you dieHe's a runner and he'll run away
Soon there'll be no man
Woman ain't been born that can make him stay
Woman get away while you can
He's a runner, he's a runner and he's got to run
He's got to run away
