Strong Enough

Katie Armiger

I would love to hear you say my name
Listen to you laugh the night away
Feel your hands reach out for me
Feel the way it used to be again

I would love to look into your eyes
See a thousand old forever's flying by
Make promises we'll never keep
Fall until we're in too deep again

I can't go there
I can't go back
I can't let go
This close to you
My feet won't move
I'm just not strong enough
Not strong enough to leave

I would love to feel you touch my face
Like every second by could be erased
Back to where it all begins
A place where I believe again
For just a moment breathe you in but

I can't go there
I can't go back
I can't let go
This close to you
My feet won't move
I'm just not strong enough
Not strong enough to leave

I don't belong here
You don't belong to me
Set me free

I can't go there
I can't go back
I can't let go
This close to you

My feet won't move
I'm just not strong enough
Not strong enough
Not strong enough
Not strong enough
