You're In My Arms Again

Isaac Hayes

Alone again, at last again
Please let love have its way
Dont let the waiting, anticipating
Be all in vain
Be good to me cause Im gonna be
As good as I can be to youBaby, oh baby, I need you
I swear I do
No other women can love me
Oh, like you doYoure the best thing
That ever happened to this man
And Im gonna keep on loving you
Just as long as I can
I love you, I love youOne night alone is too long alone
When ones been loved by you
Its so good to touch
When Ive missed so much
This thrills been long overdueThe love you give is the reason I live
Youre food to this hungry, so are mine
If satisfaction was money
Id be the worlds richest man
Cause you give me such good lovin
Just as much as I can standWhen were together
If its a hundred years from today
Through sunshine and stormy weather
Youll still hear me say
I love you, I love youYoure in my arms again
Where you should have been
Youre in my arms again
Where you should have been
