Omd

Born in Kansas on an ordinary plain
Ran to New York but ran away from fame
Only seventeen when all your dreams came true
But all you wanted was someone to undress you And all the stars you kissed
Could never ease the pain
Still the grace remains
The face has changed and it's still the same And it's a long long way
From where you want to be
And it's a long long road
But you're too blind to see Frame of silence
Of an innocence divine
Is a dangerous creation
When you fail the test of time And all the photographs
Of ghosts of long ago
Still they hurt you so
Won't let you go
And you still don't know And it's a long long way
From where you want to be
And it's a long long road
But you're too blind to see When you look around yourself now
Do you recognize the girl?
The one who broke a thousand hearts
Terrified the world And all the stars you kissed
Could never ease the pain
And if the face has changed
The grace remains and you're still the same And it's a long long way
From where you want to be
And it's a long long road
But you're too blind to see And it's a long long way
From where you want to be
And it's a long long road
And you're too blind to see And it's a long long way
From where you want to be
And it's a long long road
And you're too blind to see And it's a long long way
From where you want to be
And it's a long long road
