God Only Knows

Pro-Pain

hate is like a fireburning in my head you are my desireas i desire you dead please don't ask me questionsbecause i can only lieand the hunt will never endas long, as long as my love my love, you denygather round kids, gather all round the campfireas i hunt you down in the night like a vampireso the story goes - the fire burns to the black and god only knows if you're ever coming backoh, i can feel your presence breathing in my airin the midst of nervous laughteri can sense that you're awaresomewhere in these clouded thoughtsthere lies a peaceful manand you are all i seeki will swear to walk the landuntil i find you
