

Gift of Failure

Young Widows

Have you seen his eyes
He traded them to a blind man
The blind man set tied to a chair
Creature of darkness, no longer
Some will try the gift of failure
There's nothing to hear
That hasn't been heard
Glued to the mirror
Hands through his hair
The faceless appears, forgotten
Some will try the gift of failure
Have you seen his eyes
He traded them to a blind man
Still on the tracks
Can't see the train
Creature of lightness, no longer
Some will try the gift of failure
Nothing to see
That hasn't been seen
He shouted for days
Sung just for fun
The careless appears, forgotten
Some will try the gift of failure
And some will try...
The gift of failure
